

Outsider Art

THE 6TH ANNUAL WINTER PARK PAINT OUT ATTRACTS RENOWNED PLEIN-AIR ARTISTS.

The streets, parks and historic sites of Winter Park will become subjects of original artwork when the Albin Polasek Museum & Sculpture Gardens hosts the 6th annual Winter Park Paint Out. From April 20 to 26, the museum's signature fundraiser will attract more than two dozen accomplished plein-air artists from Florida and beyond to capture the city's landscapes and landmarks in oils, watercolors and pastels. Upon completion, works will be displayed and made available for sale.

Admission to the Polasek will be free during the weeklong event, which also includes family friendly, Easter-themed programming on April 20 and free artist demonstrations. To meet all the artists and view the entire exhibition of works, purchase tickets to the closing Garden Party, which will be held on Saturday, April 26, from 6 to 9 p.m. oam

A Polasek Welcome, 2011, Berto Ortega, acrylic on board, 19.25" x 13.5"

Lapis Lillies, 2013, Hiu Lai Chong, oil on linen board, 16" x 8"

COURTESY ALBIN POLASEK MUSEUM & SCULPTURE GARDENS

East Washington Street Park, 2013, Stephen Bach, oil on canvas, 24" x 24"

Rose Garden and Portico at Knowles Chapel Rollins College, 2013, Stacy Barter, oil on linen, 12" x 9"

Winter Park Paint Out

April 20 to 26 • Albin Polasek Museum & Sculpture Gardens
407.647.6294 • winterparkpaintout.org

Sunny Day at the Polasek, 2013, Irina Kovnacka Ashcraft, oil on canvas, 16" x 20"